

Vulnerable Adults Policy

A vulnerable person is any adult who

- May be in need of community care services by reason of age or illness or disability (physical or mental)
- May be unable to take care of him/herself or unable to protect him/herself against significant harm or exploitation

Definition of Significant harm Ill-treatment including sexual abuse, forms of ill treatment that are not physical; the impairment of or unavoidable deterioration in physical or mental health; and the impairment of physical, intellectual, emotional, social or behavioural development’.

Definition of Risk

Refers to situations or behaviours which present a real or potential threat of harm to a person’s health, development, safety or well-being. Vulnerable people can be at risk because of the actions or behaviour of others or they can be at risk because of self-neglect, their behaviour and lifestyle.

Ivybridge Caring is committed to ensuring that vulnerable people who use our services are not exploited or abused and that working practices minimise the risk of abuse. If abuse is reported to us or volunteers recognise abuse, this policy outlines what steps should be taken. This policy compliments our Equal Opportunities Policy.

Values

- All individuals will be treated with equal respect regardless of age, ethnicity, gender, religion, sexual identity or impairment

Aims

- To respond sensitively to reported incidents of self neglect and abuse

All reports of suspected or alleged abuse must be recorded in detail.

Action to take when abuse is disclosed

Listen carefully to what the person is saying.

Give the person time to say what he or she wants to.

Make initial enquiries and establish the situation as far as possible without starting an investigation.

Sensitively ask open questions (not leading questions) to obtain key information:

What has happened

When did the activity take place

Where did it take place

Who is involved

Discuss with the person what action he/she wishes you to take. Obtain consent in writing if possible.

Ensure that the person knows how to contact the police to report the incident if he or she wishes to do so.

If the person asks you not to take any action

You must explain to the person that you must inform the appropriate person in charge. Tell the person you understand that he or she does not wish to take any action and you will inform the coordinator of this. If the abused person does not want the matter to go any further than his/her wishes should be respected unless the following apply:

- Where the alleged abuse has been perpetrated by a professional, a paid helper or volunteer of any organisation who may have access to other vulnerable people
- Where there is likelihood of a serious crime occurring
- Where the client lacks the mental capacity to make an informed decision

If the person wishes action to be taken

You should record all the information that you have been told and what you have observed e.g. bruising. The wishes of the vulnerable person should be taken into account and their consent (if they are able to give it) should be obtained regarding further action and the sharing of information.
